DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

The Elkhorn Valley Swept By a Mighty Flood Yesterday Morning Early and

One Hundred Perish—The Loss of Property Will Reach Millions—Thirty Miles Railroad Washed Away—Much Suffering.

ANOTHER JOHNSTOWN HORROR.

Roscoe, Va., June 24.—This entire section has been visited by a flood, the extent of which, in all probability, will nearly equal that of Johnstown, Pa., so far as the loss of property is concerned.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several hours. This continued throughout the entire day and night.

All day Saturday the rain fell in sheets, and it soon became evident that there would be a flood and a great destruction must result from it, but it was not until after darkness had enveloped the coal regions that the great catastrophe was upon the country and was making a clean sweep of the valley for miles around.

Shortly after midnight Saturday night it seemed as if the heavens had opened their flood gates over the town of Vivian, W. Va. Here a passenger train was caught in the flood, and the lives of the frightened passengers were saved only by the use of ropes, which were quickly thrown over in the coal ovens which skirt the railroad yards at Vivian. The passengers were glad to catch the ropes, and willing hands dragged them from the submerged train and over the overhanging to a point of safety.

The flood seems to have extended over a vast area of mountain country, and the hundreds of mountain streams, becoming swollen, only served to swell the Elkhorn river until it overflowed and carried destruction in its wake. Railroad ties and tracks small buildings of all descriptions, trees, telegraph poles, huge boulders and every imaginable movable thing that came within the sweep of this mighty torrent of maddened waters went down the mountainous district in a seething, roaring mass of debris.

Dead bodies could be seen floating along the valley by those who had gained a place of safety in the high hills.

The Pocahontas coal field is located in a basin with high mountain ranges on either side, Elkhorn creek flowing through the center of the basin, which ranges from one-fourth to one mile in width. From Knix, W. Va., to Vivian, W. Va., a distance of ten miles, miners' cabins, coal company commissaries and coke plants line this basin. Elkhorn creek, being fed by numerous small streams coming from the mountain side, rises very rapidly and this water spout came so suddenly that the entire basin between the two mountain ranges was flooded, and before the terror-stricken people realized what was upon them they were carried down by the flood, which swept everything in its path.

The little town of Keystone, with a population of about 2,000, seems the greatest sufferer, practically the entire town being washed away. The latest reports today state that the loss of life amounting to 200 or more, first reported is exaggerated. A train from the stricken valley this morning reports that there were probably 100 perished, and the property loss will reach millions. It will be days before the exact loss of life will be known. There are thirty miles of railroad track swept away, and the greatest consternation reigns.

Later reports from the stricken region state that the number of deaths will go to two hundred, and possibly four hundred.

o'clock in the morning. Secretary Hay was prostrated from the shock when notified but is now able to sit up. The young man was formerly United States Consul at Pretoria, South Africa, and had gone to New Haven to attend the Yale commencement. He was a member of the class of '98.

MORE REBELS SURRENDER.
Manila, June 24.—General Calles and seven hundred men formally surrendered today. They all took the oath and wept bitterly while they did so.

GIRL DROWNED.
Bowling Green, June 24.—Edna Russell, aged 12, was drowned in a pond on her father's farm.

DRAWN TO DEATH.
Franklin, June 24.—Robert Trail, a young farmer, became entangled in the harness and was dragged to death by a mule.

BOYCOTT LIKELY.
ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE TO FIGHT THE ST. BERNARD COAL COMPANY.

Messrs. C. T. Wilson and A. D. Tuck, of the Central City Coal Miners' Union, were in the city on business pertaining to the trouble at the mines. They will meet here again this week with the presidents J. D. Woods and Secretary W. J. Campbell and arrange to fight the St. Bernard Coal Company here. In the recent strike at the mines of the St. Bernard Coal Company in Hopkins county 1,600 union miners walked out, and negroes, most of which are ex-convicts, are now employed and the union miners cannot find employment. The two first mentioned gentlemen were appointed a committee to work the country and arrange for the unions to fight the coal company and not to buy any coal sold by that company. They claim that every method possible has been tried to settle the matter amicably, and that the final boycotting step has been necessitated by the action of the company in not reinstating the miners. The trouble in the rates of pay to the miners was that they are paying 15 cents the miners claim, 15 cents less than other companies.

BOARD ELECTS.

FISCAL COURT TO SELECT JUDGE TULLY'S SUCCESSOR

Shortly—Meeting to Be Held Wednesday—Many Have Been Mentioned for the Place.

There is a great deal of interest manifested in who will be elected to succeed County Judge J. O. Tully, and a number of gentlemen are mentioned for the place, including nearly all the members of the board of magistrates.

Attorney R. T. Lightfoot, who has the Democratic nomination for county judge, was among those suggested to fill the unexpired term until January, but he states positively that he would not serve, as he cannot leave the duties of city attorney at present.

Justice Jesse Young, the nearest magistrate, is acting county judge, in pursuance of law, and Judge Tully's successor is to be elected by fiscal court. Wednesday an informal meeting of the board of magistrates will be held, at which it will be decided when to hold the election. It was thought that the governor might under the recent decision giving him the power to fill vacancies in magisterial districts, have the power to appoint the county judge, but the best lawyers say that the decision gives him no such power.

Among those mentioned as probable applicants for the place are Messrs. Wynne Tully, son of the deceased, and J. R. Hooker, R. J. Barber, Jesse Gilbert and half a dozen others.

SANITARY MOVEMENTS.

SEVERAL PERSONS NOTIFIED THIS MORNING TO ABATE NUISANCES.

Sewerage Inspector Geo. A. Gardner and Health officer Graves this morning served notices on eight residents of Jefferson Street from Fifth Street out, to abate nuisances created by running slop-water into gutters. If the order is not complied with they will be warranted.

TO NEW ORLEANS

Roadmaster L. A. Downs Goes Down to Superintend Important Work There.

REPORTED IS PERMANENT

Attempt Last Night to Wreck a Train—A New Traveling Engineer Appointed for This Division.

GOOD ROADS TRAIN PASSES THROUGH

Roadmaster L. A. Downs, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, left last night for New Orleans where he will superintend the erection of buildings necessary to the proper operation of the big Stuyvesant Fish grain elevator recently built at New Orleans. The elevator is situated some distance from the main line of the road and is rather inconvenient for the operators who have to go there from the city. About $2,000,000 will be expended in the building of a city or rather a suburb near the elevator. It is reported that Mr. Downs has been transferred to that division of the road permanently. This report was not officially announced, however.

Mr. Pat Galvin, the well known supervisor, will probably be appointed roadmaster pro tem if Mr. Downs' appointment is not permanent.

Mr. Jerry Corbett, of the yardmaster's department, will leave today for Frankfort on a brief pleasure visit.

The Good Roads train passed through the city yesterday morning at 7 o'clock en route to Louisville. There were ten cars loaded with road machines and those who saw the train say that the machines are the finest ever brought through this city. The train did not stop here but passed through. All roads south have been worked on and the result is the very best.

The switch engine at Princeton collided with a freight engine yesterday and the pilots of the freight engine was knocked off and aside from this no damage was done.

Mr. Allan Jorgenson, the local chief dispatcher, returned from Dawson last night. He has been at that place for his health but has been doing his work there all the time. He is not yet in the very best of health and may return today or tomorrow.

Mr. Bell Given, of the master mechanic's department returned from Chicago this morning on the early accommodation via Fulton. He has been absent from the city about one week.

Mr. A. M. Dustin, foreman of the boiler making department of the local Illinois Central shops, has gone to Chicago on a short pleasure trip.

An attempt was made to wreck the accommodation train No. 121 by some one placing cross-ties on the track about one half miles from Florence Station yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The train was in charge of Engineer Kelley, Fireman Givens and Conductor Hansborough and when the first obstruction was reached the train was not going fast and was stopped in time to prevent a wreck. About one eight of a mile further another cross tie obstruction was found and the train struck this but not hard enough to derail the engine. The person or persons who placed this tie on the track have not been found but the railroad will put its detectives on the case.

MANY DEATHS

Sudden Demise of County Judge Tully Shocks Many People in the City.

SUMMONS UNEXPECTED

OTHER DEATHS IN AND ABOUT PADUCAH

JUDGE J. C. TULLY.
The sudden and unexpected death of County Judge J. C. Tully yesterday morning about five o'clock at his residence on West Jefferson street occasioned widespread regret throughout the city. It came as a great shock to his hundreds of friends, many of whom had seen him only the day before, and did not know that he was seriously ill.

Judge Tully had been in failing health for several months, and night before last, on account of the heat, occupied a different room from the one in which he generally slept. About 4:00 he got up and put out the lamps, got a drink of water and after going out on the porch to get a breath of fresh air, went to bed in another room. In a short time his wife heard him groan, and upon going to him found him unconscious and in a dying condition. He was never conscious and passed away shortly after Dr. C. H. Brothers and shortly before Dr. Murrell, the family physician, arrived.

Judge Tully was born in New York City August 12th, 1838. He had been a resident of Paducah since 1887, formerly being pastor of the Christian Church in St. Louis. He was at different times since his residence here in the real estate and other business, and served one term as magistrate, being elected county judge four years ago. He was ordained a minister in 1861, and married Miss Loretta Moore, of Illinois, the following year.

He was defeated for the Democratic nomination for county judge last spring by Hon. R. T. Lightfoot, but was one of the most prominent and popular men in the county. His health had been failing for several months past, and he only returned from a trip to Milwaukee and other places a week ago. Death is attributed to heart disease.

The deceased leaves a wife and four children, Mrs. Maria Truscott, of Remus, Okla., Messrs. Wynne and Owen Tully, and Mrs. T. A. Lyle, of the city. A daughter, Miss Kate, died only a few weeks ago. He also leaves a brother, Mr. Thomas De Witt Tully, in Brooklyn, N. Y. His death is the third to occur in the family in one year.

Judge Tully had been in the real estate business most of his life. He often preached at the Christian Church here a few years ago, although at that time he had retired from the ministry. He resigned the pastorate of his church in St. Louis in January, 1897, and since that time had resided in Paducah.

He was an Odd Fellow, Mason, and a Christian gentleman of sterling worth. The funeral will be held some time Wednesday afternoon from the residence. Burial at Oak Grove under the auspices of Ingleside lodge, I. O. O. F., which he was a member.

CAPT. R. G. ROUSE.

Capt. Robert G. Rouse, for many years agent for the St. Bernard Coal Company here, died yesterday morning at his home at Sixth and Harrison Streets at 12:30 o'clock from liver trouble, after a several week's illness. An operation was performed on him about a week ago, but the relief was only temporary.

The deceased was born in Henderson in 1826, and was city marshal of that place for several years. He was married over fifty years ago, and his faithful wife survives him, together with two children, Messrs. Samuel Plumb and Joe Bishop. He had been a resident of Paducah for the last twenty-five years and there was not a more respected man in the county. He was a Christian gentleman of many excellent qualities, and his death removes one of Paducah's most public spirited citizens.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the family residence. Services by Rev. W. H. Pinkerton. Burial at Oak Grove.

MR. J. W. CHAMPION.

Mr. J. W. Champion, aged 65, died Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, after an illness of three years of cancer of the face. He had been a patient sufferer and was able to get out until a few weeks ago. For several years he had kept a boarding house on Court Street near Third, and was a man who was quiet and unassuming and was liked by all who knew him. He was born in Stewart county, Tenn., and for twenty years was in business across the river from Linton, Trigg county. He leaves a wife and two sons, Messrs. Luni and Harry Champion, and two brothers and a sister, one brother in Stewart county and a brother and sister near Folsomdale, Graves county. The remains were this morning taken to his old home in Stewart county on the Buttorf, for burial.

MISS BESSIE ADAMS.

Miss Bessie Adams, formerly a teacher in the public schools, and a most estimable lady, died at 5 o'clock this morning from consumption at her home, 1019 Harrison street, after an illness of two years. She was the only child of Mrs. E. C. Adams, and her sad death ends a beautiful Christian life. She returned several months ago from a trip to Georgia and South Carolina, whither she had gone with a hope of improving her health. She leaves no relatives except her mother and several cousins and distant kinsmen. She was a relative of Bishop Morrison, who was in Owensboro, and will arrive this evening to conduct the funeral.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at five o'clock from the Trumble street M. E. Church, services by Rev. Irion, assisted by Rev. T. J. Owen. The burial will be at Oak Grove.

MRS. W. B. PADGETT.

Mrs. W. B. Padgett, wife of the keeper of the county poor farm, died yesterday afternoon at her home on the Mayfield road from a congestion, after a brief illness, aged 59. She was born in Stewart county, Tenn., and was a highly respected lady. She leaves besides her husband, two children, both of whom live in Indian Territory, and are expected to attend the funeral. The remains will be taken to Stewart county as soon as they arrive.

DEATH AT PALESTINE.

Fred Staley, aged one year, died at Palestine yesterday from dysentery. The burial was at Palestine church.

DIED FROM MENINGITIS.

Willie Pace, aged three months, died last night at the family residence, 1427 South Tenth street, from spinal meningitis, after a brief illness. The burial took place at the Huff graveyard in the county.

FORMERLY OF THIS COUNTY.

Miss Annie Bennett aged about 30 who for years lived in McCracken county died yesterday afternoon at her home in Metropolis from consumption. She leaves quite a number of relatives in this county. The funeral took place today.

PARSONAGE BURGLARIZED

RESIDENCE OF REV. G. W. BRIGGS VISITED BY THIEVES LAST Night—Completely Ransacked, But Cannot Be Determined What Was Stolen.

The cook at Rev. G. W. Briggs', who has had charge of the residence back of the Broadway M. E. Church during the absence of Rev. Briggs and family, went in this morning to water the flowers and look after the place. She found that sometime last night or Saturday night thieves had broken into the house, entering through a rear window and had ransacked the place. The drawers were pulled away from the walls, the drawers opened and the contents scattered all over the floor, and the general aspect of the interior was that of a house after a cyclone.

Rev. Briggs is in Osceola, Ark., and Mrs. Briggs is visiting in Owensboro and there being no one here who can ascertain what is missing, it cannot at present be determined what was stolen.

The windows were all securely fastened down before the burglary. The police have been notified of the case, but have no clue on which to work.

DONS WAR PAINT.

Mayor Lang Will Suggest a Revocation of the Street Car Company's Charter.

Mayor Lang threatens to octopus the Paducah Street Railway company. He says things have about reached the limit, and the street car company must run its cars in conformity to the ordinances, or not at all. "I'm going to bring up the matter of annulling the company's charter at the next council meeting," he said today. "The council has ordered the company to run its cars over the right of way granted it by the city, and it simply ignores us. Several times it has been ordered to resume its cars out Jackson street to the end of the line, but continues running them several blocks short. It has abandoned its line on Court from Second to Fourth, and runs only one of its cars to the river, the other two stopping at Second street.

In addition the company has continually and persistently raised its tracks above the grade of the street, which is contrary to law, and when the city's representatives go to it, it only laughs at us."

The mayor promises to have the street car company put whether the company complies or not.

There was a good attendance and so game was team up to something clear over their expenses and will probably arrange for another game when the team is in better shape. Jackson, the third baseman for the Marble Hill team, was ill and unable to play, which weakened the team considerably.

The Brook Hills were victorious over the younger team of Cairo yesterday afternoon by a score of 11 to 12. Russell, the pitcher for the Brook Hills team, did some star playing and the result of the game can largely be credited to him. He received the very best of support and the game was interesting all the way through. There was a good attendance and the game was played without an accident.

WHERE DOES HE STAND?

Once upon a time ex-Mayor Yeiser ordered the water company to make a certain test. The "test" would not have been a fair test, and would have left the water company in a bad light before the people, which was apparently the object of the kind of "test" the mayor prescribed. The water company declined to make the "test" ordered by the mayor. The latter said he would compel the company to. The company said to proceed and make, but he didn't get the "test." Once upon a time ex-Mayor Yeiser declared that the law prohibited the existence of any "dead-ends" in the water works system. The water company contended that the law applied only to the twelve miles originally provided for, and not to extensions, which could not be made without "dead-ends." That if there were to be no "dead-ends" there could be no extensions. The mayor was obstinate and the water company was firm. The mayor said there would be extensions when ordered by the council, and equally as certain that there would not be "dead-ends." He was so mindful of the people's interests that he was willing to sacrifice their chance of getting the benefits of a water works system, simply because he thought, or professed to think, that these should be no "dead-ends." It wasn't a question of paying water, but of not having "dead-ends." For four years he stuck to his "dead-end" fallacy, and for four years the council was unable to get the water mains extended, except one small line to the railroad. Can it be claimed that this hostile attitude was in the interest of the people, or could in any way possibly result in any good to them or to anyone else? It was the Republican council that passed a resolution that relieved the situation and gave the people water. The people didn't care anything about "dead-ends" and the mayor's grudge against the water company. They wanted water. It was the Republican council that enabled them to get it. If it hadn't, they would probably have been no extensions to this day, as it is commonly reported that ex-Mayor Yeiser's regime did not end with his term of office. The people are not to be hood-winked into believing that the ex-mayor, who is now asking them for another term of office, is a public benefactor, or has any of the elements of a municipal Moses who can lead them into the promised land. They have not forgotten how he kept them from getting water and offered as a substitute the innocuous "dead-end" argument. They have not forgotten the evidence of progress of the chief executive when he vetoed the provision for a sanitary sewerage system—because he said it was a success would necessitate a patronage of a corporation he had a grudge against. Paducah is not looking forward to a mayor who will set her back ten years in her onward march. She wants a live, progressive man who knows the difference between public enterprise and progress and private spite and subterfuge. The ex-mayor claims to be a Democrat, and has the nomination, but he will have to show better claims to the support of Democracy than the mere fact of having the nomination. The people would like to know what he ever did to advance the interests of Paducah, or to uphold it, or to add to its prestige, and also what he expects to do towards this end if he is elected mayor. They want a man who, if he has never yet done anything, expects to do something, and would like to know what it is that he expects to do.

The people would like to know what he ever did to advance the interests of Paducah, or to uphold it, or to add to its prestige, and also what he expects to do towards this end if he is elected mayor. They want a man who, if he has never yet done anything, expects to do something, and would like to know what it is that he expects to do.

We are informed that Mr. Yeiser voted for Mr. Bryan, Mr. Goebel, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Beckham. Presumably this makes him a Democrat. We know of men who voted for Mr. McKinley who have voted against Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Goebel and Mr. Beckham, and they ought by the same method of reasoning to be Republicans. Yet they would feel deeply grieved if they were called Republicans. Some of them may be on the present Democratic ticket.

The Louisville papers seem to have it in for the parks there and are trying to reform them. The only surprise at the state of affairs painted in such lurid colors by the papers, seems to be felt by the papers themselves. Everybody else seems to know that as a usual thing the parks have been a favorite place for funny happenings ever since the Garden of Eden came to the front with the greatest snake story on record. The most ceaseless vigilance will fail to convert public parks into Sunday schools.

The Lexington Leader says: "Circuit Judge Tarvin, of Kenton county, has read a scurrilous lecture to United States Judge Walter Evans on the iniquity of dragging the bench into politics. We don't know of any man in Kentucky who is better qualified to discuss the subject than Judge Tarvin as there is no depth of political or personal feeling to which he has not been willing to drag his petti-foggish court." And then makes this timely suggestion:

"What's the matter with sending the Hon. James Pollock Tarvin to the Pan-American exposition as a Feejee Island American exhibit?"

A Mayfield woman who had been criticised by the ministers for permitting dances at her hotel, handed them out the following red hot roast: "Whether it is sinful for young people to dance is not a question for me to decide. Some of the most refined, elevated and educated men and women do dance, and some of the leading churches do not condemn it. The president and the governors of all states give balls and furnish halls, and the foremost people of the land, scholars of the supreme court, senators, judges and divines attend. And it is becoming in ministers of Christ, the friend of the widows and the orphans, to attempt to injure a widow, a stranger and alone, when they haven't the nerve to condemn the same and far worse faults of those in high places? Verily they strain at a gnat and swallow a crab." And the next night she gave another ball.

Some idea of what people think of ex-Mayor Yeiser's attempt to pose as a Democrat, and secure the support of the Democrats on the strength of having the nomination, may be judged from an incident that happened a few days ago, in which the gentleman who "voted for Bryan, Wheeler, Goebel and Beckham," never registered as a Democrat unless it is a recent thing, and ran against the regular nominee of the party he is now trying to represent, was told by a prominent city

It's a Democratic ticket, but how many Democrats are on it?

The Democratic nomination is a bait that may catch the suckers but all people are not suckers.

All we need now is a few more "dead-end" arguments and a reiteration of our position on the Music Hall convention.

Mr. Yeiser's Democracy is not worrying the Sun half as much as it will be worrying him before the campaign is over.

As they can testify down at Mayfield every bottle that's labelled "bitters" hasn't got "bitters" in it. So with Democracy.

The people who "boosted the Business Men's council on the too end of a boot" did the same thing to the gang that tried to sneak into office about two years previous.

If ex-Mayor Yeiser is a Democrat because he "voted for Bryan, Wheeler, Goebel and Beckham," what are those little fellows who didn't vote for Bryan, Wheeler, Goebel and Beckham?

Henderson, Hopkinsville, Louisville and other "towns" think they are warm numbers. They ought to come to Paducah, where every few days old Sol does a stunt and the mercury gracefully ascends to the 100 mark. Then they could talk.

The Unionville correspondent of the Brookport Eagle piously remarks: "A great many of our farmers are cutting wheat. God be with them." If it is as hot over there as it is here it is very unpropitious to extend the invitation just at this time. It would be a more congenial climate for the other fellow.

The Metropolis Herald says Paducah is threatened with an epidemic of smallpox and is thinking of quarantining against Metropolis. This is a mistake. Paducah is threatened with no epidemic of anything. If all the people in Metropolis had smallpox and came to Paducah you could lose "em within a few blocks and no one would ever know they were here.

The world looks on across walle Fulton, Ky., and Jackson, Tenn., make wry faces and swear they will "outstep" each other. They have fallen out over the removal of the division officers of the Illinois Central from Jackson to Fulton. Nothing to fall out over neighbors. We are sure that if the officials could take their choice they'd come to Paducah.

We are informed that Mr. Yeiser voted for Mr. Bryan, Mr. Goebel, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Beckham. Presumably this makes him a Democrat. We know of men who voted for Mr. McKinley who have voted against Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Goebel and Mr. Beckham, and they ought by the same method of reasoning to be Republicans. Yet they would feel deeply grieved if they were called Republicans. Some of them may be on the present Democratic ticket.

The Sun favors the people being COMPELLED to connect with the sewerage, just as they are compelled to pay for street improvements, sidewalks, and for maintaining a government that they are getting little benefit from; it favors the people being COMPELLED to connect with the sewerage just as they are compelled to refrain from obstructing sidewalks that they have paid for; from allowing private nuisance, however enjoyable to themselves, from existing as a menace to their neighbors, or from putting up inside certain limits a frame building on property they have bought and paid for. This is indeed free country, but there is a limit to freedom, and personal rights are restricted in such a manner as to redound to the greatest good to the greatest number. These are recognized principles of good government which are acceptable to all intelligent people.

WOMAN ARRESTED.

THE AUTOPSY SHOWED THE INFANT WAS DROWNED.

The young woman charged with throwing the body of her infant into a cesspool at Brookport is Bertha Hicks, aged 18, who is under arrest, but is not able to be taken to Metropolis and committed to jail. The coroner's inquest and autopsy showed that the death of the infant was due to drowning. Blake Thaxton, whom she charges with being the father of her child, has left the county.

A FINE BARN.

MR. ROTTGERING MAKES A GOOD ADDITION TO HIS PROPERTY.

One of the handsomest barns to be found anywhere is the one just completed by Mr. Rottgering, the dairy man. It was erected by Messrs. Cross and Vogt, the well known contractors and cost $1,600. It is a splendid sample of barn building and shows the high class of work these gentlemen are turning out.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, P. J. THE SUN'S DAILY STORY.

MARTHA-MOTHER.

By DANNEY MARSHALL. Copyright, 1901, by the Daily Story Pub. Co.

"Martha, she made no complaint, but she was slowly breaking, for she had lost her husband's affection. All the thought, all the care, all the tenderness which should have been hers, he lavished on a black hole in the ground which he called the 'Emily K.'"

Not that mine operating was his occupation. He was only a very excellent and well-paid bookkeeper for Smith & Smith, dealers in mining supplies; but every penny of his ample salary that was not needed by his family for the best groceries was absorbed by the Emily K., or some other of that insatiable sterility.

"James," his wife said to him one night, "I wish Louise could begin her music now. The teacher that boards across the street says she has wonderful talent; and she'll give her lessons for half price and let her practice over there."

"Half price!" said the man, sharply. "I can pay full price, and I will as soon as I make a big strike. We're getting the finest kind of shine. See here!" And he drew from his pocket a handful of glittering specimens.

"Louise shall have her lessons. She shall go to Boston to study. Just wait a little."

A week later he came home with a haggard face.

"Drowned out!" he said, huskily. "The water has beat us in. We can't do it. Curse the thing! We're nearly ruined."

"But you might not have struck it anyway, James."

"Couldn't a' helped it, Martha," he replied, impatiently. "Haven't I told you the mining experts all say the rich vein they're working in the 'Wild Goose' runs straight into our lot?"

He walked the floor with hasty, irregular strides; and there was a feverish glare in his eyes.

"We'll have to go back to the 'Little Letty,'" he said at last, with a sigh that was half a sob. "It ain't near as good a prospect. Some fellows were talking today about a new prospect down on the tract where the Republic Zinc Co. made their big strike. I must go back down and see 'em about it. I don't want any supper."

As he left the house a tall, handsome girl came into the room.

"Did you ask me about my new dress?" she inquired anxiously.

"I just couldn't, honey," said the mother, deprecatingly. "He's all worked up over the Emily K. The water has got in. And he's talking about a new prospect."

The girl's face paled with disappointment. "I won't go to the party" and kissed him right in the court.

then, she said passionately, "It's the first time Harry ever saved me; but I won't go with him in that old, faded dress. The girls at school all laugh at it; and he's so particular. And the house is so shabby. I'm ashamed to show it. I hate the Emily K. and all the rest of 'em."

shot by the Indians. And Louise, Louise was lying under the sod in far away Dakota with her day old baby in her arms. She died calling for the mother who could not come to her because it had taken a month's salary in advance to fight the water in the 'Emily K.'"

The old man looked at his wife with scared eyes, but there was no response to his appeal. The fire of love had gone out long before for lack of fuel; and after the first stare of amazement at his wild speech, she ceased to look at him or heed him. Her aching heart was in Dakota beside a grave that she had never seen.

The desolate man tottered out on the little porch. It was a quiet street; but the few passers-by gazed curiously at his cowed head. The big strike was the talk of the town, and they wondered at his attitude. As the shadows deepened, he rose and crept into the house with tears streaming down his face.

"Martha! Mother! Where air ye?" he sobbed.

"The woman turned in the darkness with a glad light in her eyes. This was a sound that she knew and loved. 'Here I am, James!' she cried, in a thrilling voice, holding out her arms.

"I've wronged ye, Martha—you and the children; but I meant it for the best," he wailed, as she laid his trembling head on her arm. "I meant to do right by ye, mother."

"Never mind, James. I know you thought it was best. I know it all the time," she crooned, stroking his gray hair and smiling happily. For out of the wreck of her ruined life, sweetheart, husband and child in one had come back to her empty arms.

Structure Symbolizes National Traits. Windsor castle is the proper home of our kings, because, in a sense, it symbolizes the character of England and Englishmen. Despite the iniquitous restoration of Wyatt, the Destroyer, we can still mark the ancient lines and wonder at its ancient splendor. It is vast, it is rugged, it is without a plan, it has grown with the energy and seal of France, and note the difference. Windsor lacks the beauty of the Louvre; the Louvre lacks the character of Windsor. Even the fortified castle of Touraine are more elegant than the great palace of our kings. Yet we are more likely to see another Louvre than another Windsor. The vast towers and the modest citadel afford a whimsical contrast which cannot be matched elsewhere, and though the hand of change has been heavy upon its walls, Windsor has been a castle for a thousand years. Nor may its situation be surpassed in the world.

Once a stronghold, it is now the pleasure palace of our kings. There many a monarch has ruled, hunted, loved and been buried. Its walks have witnessed the processions and pageants of many centuries. But never have its lofty walls looked down upon a more powerful progress than that which recently wound up the slope to the noble gate of St. George's chapel—London Daily Mail.

TONIGHT'S CAUCUS.

IT IS TIPPED THAT THERE WILL BE NO CHANGES IN THE PERSONNEL OF TEACHERS.

The board of education will hold its annual caucus for the nomination of teachers at its chamber in the city hall tonight, and as usual outsiders will be barred.

It is tipped that Supt. Hatfield will be re-elected without trouble, and there is only one change hinted at, and this is in the principalship of one of the schools. Tomorrow night the nominations will be ratified and the teachers will begin leaving for their summer vacations.

REACHED 102.

YESTERDAY WAS CERTAINLY A SCORCHER IN PADUCAH.

Yesterday the temperature reached its maximum at 102 in the shade, as recorded at Observer Bornemann's. The minimum reached was 78, and while today the lowest was 74, four degrees cooler, it is believed that the temperature will go as high as it did yesterday.

It is very unusual for such hot weather to come this early. Last year and year before it was a month or more later.

Observation taken at 7 a. m. River 14.6 on the gauge, a fall of 2.0 in last 48 hours. Wind southwest, a light breeze. Weather clear and hot. Temperature 78. Pell, Observer.

From 6 o'clock this morning until noon today business was very lively on the wharf.

The John K. Speed did not get away from New Orleans until last Friday.

The Morning Star had a rough time on her way to Louisville last Friday night. Just below Louisville she was caught in a very heavy wind storm, but came out all right, proving herself to be a great storm boat, as she handled splendidly.

The City of Golconda is due this evening from Golconda and leaves on return trip tomorrow noon.

The old hull and cabin of the War Eagle waited out in the storm last Friday night at Madison, being torn loose from her moorings, but was landed below the city without damage.

The City of Clifton is advertised to leave St. Louis next Wednesday for Tennessee river. She has over 100 people booked for the round trip.

The City of Memphis from St. Louis passed up Sunday morning at 1 o'clock for the Tennessee river country.

The Brook Hill arrived last night from her trip to Sharps Lake about 35 miles above here on the Ohio. There were about twelve or fifteen on the party and they captured fully a hundred fine croppies.

River rising here with 14.5 on the gauge at 9 o'clock this morning, a rise of 1.9 since last Saturday morning.

Captain John Winfrey arrived from his home at Sharps, Tenn., last evening on the steamer Charleston. Captain John was dressed in a full suit of gray and looked a typical old corn fed soldier. He will ship as pilot on the Charleston tomorrow.

The Charleston arrived from Tennessee river last evening. She had forty-eight hogheads of tobacco for rail re-shipment at Joppa. The tobacco goes to Liverpool, England. She also had five or six carloads of lumber for Joppa. She leaves 98 return trip tomorrow at 5 p. m.

Captain Dan Finney, of the Victor, came up last night from Cairo on the Dick Fowler.

Soja Young Taylor, of the dry docks, raised the flag on the dry docks at half mast yesterday evening in honor of the death of Captain Rouse who died at 12 o'clock last Saturday night. His funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Captain Rouse had been identified with the St. Bernard Coal company for the last thirty years, 25 years of that time he was manager of the company's business here, both ashore and on the river.

Mr. James Wilkerson, pilot on the Dick Fowler, left for his home at Kuttawa this morning. He has been rather feeble for some time and will go home to recuperate. Mr. Ed Beard took the wheel of the Dick Fowler this morning to fill Mr. Wilkerson's place.

Captain Billy Shaw, after a heated trip up the Ohio, is off for a few days cooling down, his headquarters when down in the city is in very close proximity to the cold storage rooms.

The H. W. Hattorf arrived from Nashville yesterday at 2 p. m. with a good freight trip and 25 or 30 cabin passengers and departed for Clarksville at noon.

The Sunshine from Cincinnati arrived yesterday at noon with a big trip and discharged about 75 ton of freight here and left for Memphis at 4:30 p. m.

The boys who have been daily taking their ebullience in the river at the foot of the lower wharf in an almost entirely nude state, were routed last Saturday afternoon by Officer Jarvis. Several of the boys came out of the river without a vestige of anything to hide their nakedness. The City of Pittsburg was lying at the foot of the lower wharf at the time and many ladies who were out forward on the boat ailing themselves were in plain view of the unbecoming sight. The boys got aboard of the wharfbat as soon as possible and dressed themselves at the same time receiving a severe rebuke from Mr. Jarvis, who notified them that if the occurrence should be repeated he would arrest over "mother's son of them" and sit them under the clock.

The City of Golconda arrived yesterday noon with 112 round trip excursionists from Golconda and way points and departed on return trip at 5 p. m.

The Lydia arrived from Tennessee river yesterday with a big trip of ties. She went clear through to Florence and made 48 landings; was out 12 days. She went to Joppa today

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

Considering the extreme heat of yesterday the church attendance was fairly good. Many people have the mistaken idea that it is warmer at church than anywhere else but as the preachers have often characterized Paducah churches as being "decidedly cold" that excuse cannot hold good. In fact the churches were more pleasant than anywhere else yesterday, the sun not having penetrated the thick walls and there being a good breeze to be found somewhere.

The Cumberland Presbyterian had the unusual record yesterday of the largest Sunday school attendance for the past several years. They have divided the Sunday school into two sides each striving to enroll the largest number of new scholars. Rev. J. C. Reid preached a very strong and able sermon at the morning service on with part of her trip, where she is discharging, and will arrive on return trip tomorrow morning and do some light repairs before starting on another trip. Captain Emory Voight in command.

The Dick Fowler excursion to Cairo yesterday was a very pleasant affair. There were about 150 from here and about 100 got on at way points.

Yesterday was a very hot day and the thermometer went about two degrees above the century mark. Captain Lee Gordon says his last trip of piloting came near burning him out and his "boilers" are not thoroughly cooled yet.

The Joe Fowler had a light trip of people for Evansville this morning and departed at 10 a. m.

The Dick Fowler left for Cairo on prompt time this morning with a big trip of people.

The Avalon departed for Chattanooga at noon today with all the freight she could handle on the present stage of water in the upper Tennessee. She also had a good many people, most round trippers.

Remember the moonlight excursion to Joppa, Ill., tomorrow night for the benefit of the Washington street Baptist church, colored. Good music and plenty of refreshments. Fare 25 cents round trip. Boat leaves at 8 o'clock.

ENCAMPMENT AT METROPOLIS.

Metropolis is to entertain the Southern Illinois Soldiers and Sailors at their annual reunion in the fall, probably the first week in October. Gen. Martin and staff will visit Metropolis July 18 to select a site for the encampment.

FREE! FREE!

We propose to give away a nice lot of Begonia Vernon plants to our customers this week; as long as they last. We will give one plant, with every purchase or account paid. C. L. BRUNSON & CO., 243 423 Broadway.

The Sun, Paducah's best paper.

"Saul of Tarsus."

There were no services yesterday morning at either the First Presbyterian or Broadway Methodist churches, the pastors of both churches being out of the city. There were interesting Children's day services at the First Presbyterian church at night.

Rev. W. H. Pinkerton and the congregation of the First Christian church held services with the Broadway Methodist congregation last evening. Mr. Pinkerton giving a very eloquent "Word Picture of Jesus."

The Rev. G. W. Perryman has begun a series of Sunday evening sermons on illustrative subjects, warranted not to exceed in length twenty minutes. This a thoughtfulness that will be much appreciated by his people and will win him a large congregation these torrid nights.

A GREAT CONTEST.

THE RHODES-BURFORD CO. VOTING CONTEST WARMING UP.

The voting contest that the Rhodes-Burford Furniture company has been running for the past two months comes to a close the last of this week. It has proven a very exciting one, and the indications are that it will be more so from now on. Several of the contestants have some hard working friends who claim that their candidate shall carry off the prize. The vote will be published in The Sun each day now until the close.

MEETING TONIGHT.

TROUBLE BETWEEN CAULKERS AND CARPENTERS NOT OVER.

There has nothing been done relative to the re-instating of the ship carpenters who walked out at the marine ways last week. Superintendent Tom Murray has 24 names of journeymen who want to form a union of ship carpenters and caulkers and who do not want to take in anybody who is not a journeyman. He has applied for a charter and will probably obtain one this week. There will be a meeting of both unions tonight and some action in the matter will be taken. It is claimed that a man is not a journeyman until he thoroughly understands both the ship carpenter and "caulkers" trade and that the carpenters who walked out wanted each man to work at the trade in which he held a union card. Mr. Young Taylor of the dry docks is working many of the strikers and will continue to give them employment until the trouble is settled. The men who signed the application for the new charter bind themselves to work under it for a period of not less than one year.
